Queen, is an award winning business owner, an international speaker, author, trainer, mentor, as well as a radio and television guest, she is the CEO of VisionFocus, a business training and life-balance education company. VisionFocus specializes in providing systems for emerging leaders of leaders to experience a holistic goal achievement process.

A pioneer in the field of Social Entrepreneurship, Dr. Neen, has been empowering women, youth and communities for over 20 years with her Think it, Do It![®] message. Her current mission is to help 100,000 women business owners in the United States to manifest THEIR mission, enabling these Manifesting Mavens to develop into an unlimited, international legion of support for women abroad.

Dr. Neen was honored as an Entrepreneur of Distinction by the Orange County Institute for Women (OCIWE.org), after being nominated by the State Board of Equalization for her outstanding business leadership. Also honoring Dr. Neen, were members of Congress, California Governor Schwarzenegger, members of the California State Assembly and the State Senate as well as the Orange County Board of Supervisors.

Her vision-focused leadership techniques have been experienced by thousands ranging from individuals, students, teachers, business owners, employees and ceo's. The interactive programs are delivered live or virtually, and are distributed in multimedia format. The Think it, Do It![®] message has been sponsored by a variety of companies ranging from major corporations - such as Toyota, Shell Oil, IBM, Bank of America, Wells Fargo, Disney and more - to local businesses and government entities.

Dr. Neen is also the founder of the International Empowerment Education Foundation, a 501(c) 3 community organization. Her goal of creating a "whole person, wholesome world" through her Youth Empowerment Network aka YEN (www.EmpowerFosterYouth.com) and the Women's Peace Campaign aka WPC (www.WomensPeace.com), has been recognized by the Los Angeles Business Journal as well as by the mayor of Los Angeles, state senators and other public officials. The WPC's adopt-a-shelter project and the S.M.I.L.E. (single mom international leadership empowerment) initiative, provide successful single moms as mentors, as well as Dr. Neen's self-coaching books and trainings to 1000 pregnant teens and single moms, in crisis shelters annually.

As a tool to empower women and remove self-doubt, Dr. Neen is creating a training program so foster youth can learn how to safely make money on the internet, for free.

Dr. Neen is known for thinking outside the box to produce money-making business ideas and unique marketing strategies. Dr. Neen received a Ph.D. and D.D. from the Independent Church of Religious Science Theological Seminary.
